-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The IDS filed 5/22/04 has been considered and placed of record. An initialed copy is attached herewith.

Claim Objections

Claims 1-15 are objected to because of the following informalities: the conjunction "and/or" should be modified since its use does not define equivalent structure (claim 1). All reference terms such as SDN1 should be parenthesized (claims 1-15). Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 8, 9 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tamai et al. (US 6,275,004). The reference discloses a control power transfer system for an automobile having, inter alia, at least two batteries B1...B3 being charged from a generator 23. The batteries are provided with module to control and analyze the state of charge or health of the batteries. A microcontroller determines and controls the switching transfer of charge among the modules.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4-7 and 10-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tamai et al. (US 6,275,004).

Regarding the use of feeding loads to different parts of the vehicle, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have supplied the different parts of the vehicle with different existing batteries in order to alleviate the stress on the individual battery, since it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art. In re Japikse, 86 USPQ 70.

Regarding the use of a disable signal when the vehicle is involved in an accident, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have supplied a switch to disable the battery during an accident for the purpose of preventing spark and/or fire to the battery. Thus ensure the safety of the occupants in the vehicle.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to the Examiner at the below-listed number on every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.
